The Naomi Turner Library for the Blind

About 1,500 audiobooks for all ages and reading levels are available to members who live in the United States.

Audiobooks are available on digital cartridges compatible with players distributed by the state services of the National Library Service (NLS) and digital download.

NOTE: Christian Record does not provide digital players. Digital players are available from the member's local NLS network library for the blind to readers in the U.S.

Topics include adventure, Bible stories, biography, health, nature, as well as devotional and inspirational material.

Books may be checked out for 30 days and renewed upon request and are sent on a return/send basis. A member must return the first book borrowed to receive the second book, and so on. Letters or emails are sent to remind members to return overdue books.

All cartridge books are sent in postage-free, remailable containers. To return the books to the library, remove the address card from its holder on the mailer, turn it over, replace it in the holder, and mail the container. Check the mailer for proper contents before returning.

Bible School

Bible correspondence courses are offered in Braille and large-print formats to members in the United States.

Alive with Jesus series is an introductory course that explains the new birth and spiritual growth (22 lessons, Braille and large print).

Discover examines major themes of truth revealed in the Bible (26 lessons, Braille and large print).

Life and Teachings of Christ is an inspirational study that gives a close-up look at the life of Jesus (25 Braille lessons).

About Christian Record

Christian Record Services, Inc. is a ministry of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in North America, serving people worldwide of all faiths and walks of life who are blind. The availability of services may vary by region due to contractual agreements.

Austin O. Wilson started the organization in 1899 when he produced a Christian Braille magazine, the Christian Record, with an old clothes ringer he modified to accommodate two metal Braille plates.

Christian Record is recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization, so tax-deductible donations from supporters like you make these free resources possible.
